CIT/CASE: BS140207
LEAD/DEF#:

07/24/2015

INTRODUCTION

Defendant was sued for defamation and breach of contract. Defendant never defamed or breached a contract. The court nevertheless signed the judgment in 2012. Since then Defendant filed an appeal<sup>1</sup> July 15, 2012. After 18 months the Second Court of Appeals of Texas finally released their opinion April 9, 2015 (Exhibit 1). The Appeals Court reversed part of the judgment namely all causes related to breach of contract, attorney fees, liquidated damages and party Bat World Sanctuary. The Court also reversed the court order as they deemed it unconstitutional.

Defendant is filing a motion for rehearing on the remaining cause for very strong reasons. Every word Defendant stated was the absolute truth. All items stated came from honest, fair and privileged reports to authorities backed up by physical evidence. The remaining items were stated by Plaintiff, others or government agencies. A few items had nothing to do with Plaintiff. If Defendant doesn't win the rehearing, Defendant will appeal to the Supreme Court of Texas.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND
